LAST EDITION.

A BOGUS BROTHER.

Arrest the Scoundrel--Let no Guilt-Edged Man Escape.

Telegraphic Pleasantries in High Places.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.--A day or two since the Secretary of War received from the commandant of the Benicia Barracks, near San Francisco, the following:

"To Hon. W. W. Belknap, Secretary of War:

"A brother of the Hon. Secretary Chandler is here on inspection duty, and desires to have arms furnished. Shall I provide them?"

The reception of the message somewhat surprised Secretary Belknap, who could not imagine what peculiar kind of inspection the reported brother of Secretary Chandler could be engaged in, which would require arms. He accordingly communicated at once with the Secretary of the Interior, sending him the following telegram:

"Hon. Zachariah Chandler, Secretary of the Interior:

"A man representing himself to be your brother is at Benicia Barracks, California, on inspection duty, and desires to be furnished with arms. Shall I order him to be provided?"

[Signed] W. W. BELKNAP, "Secretary of War."

It was not many minutes before the following characteristic reply was received at the War Department:

"Hon. W. W. Belknap, Secretary of War:

"I have no brother. Arrest the scoundrel! Let no guilt-edged man escape. [Signed] Z. CHANDLER, "Secretary Interior."

Upon the receipt of this reply the Secretary of War at once telegraphed to California to have the bogus brother arrested, but the bird had flown. Yesterday the police got track of him, and at once placed him in duress in San Francisco, where he was captured.

Intelligence of this was at once sent to the Secretary of War, who made haste to communicate the news to his brother Secretary, in the following terms:

"To Hon. Zachariah Chandler, Secretary of the Interior:

"Capt. James alias Capt. Middlesex alias Col. Smith alias Major Bartley alias Lieutenant Rossell alias Lieutenant Dodge, your long lost brother has been captured in San Francisco and is safely lodged in jail at that place. Any fraternal or loving message or words of condolence you may wish to forward, I shall take pleasure in having transmitted and communicated."

[Signed] W. W. BELKNAP, "Secretary of War."

To which the following reply was sent, closing for the present the correspondence:

"Hon. W. W. Belknap, Secretary of War:

"Please have the man of many addresses examined, and if he has an unusually large strawberry mark on his shoulder have him hung. If he is unmarked, have him hung any way, for it is better that many innocent men be hung than that one guilt-edged scoundrel escape. [Signed] Z. CHANDLER, "Secretary Interior."

CUBA.

Herald Special and Editorial on That Circular.

New York, Dec. 30.--A Herald special from Washington says it is believed that the different European Governments have expressed themselves satisfied with the attitude of the President on the Cuban question, and ready to send the support of their moral influence against Spain to impress upon her the necessity of immediately or as soon as possible restoring peace in Cuba. The Spanish property-owners of Cuba are weary of the burdens of war, and are now ready to assist the new Captain General in measures looking toward reform in the administration and a pacification of the troubles. There is at present no reason to apprehend any difficulties with Spain, and at the same time previous to the publication of the President's Message, when some apprehension was felt that Spain would suddenly take offense at the tone of that document, and it was thought proper to bring the fleet into condition for any emergency. It is evident, however, that the crisis is passed, at least for the present. The prospect of a peaceable settlement of our difficulties with Spain and her renewed energy in pacification is so good that, unless an unexpected change should occur, there is no probability of hostilities or of the necessity of intervention.

The Herald editorially considers the policy of this Government in sending to the European Powers the circular relating to Cuba. It contends that Austria, Russia and Italy have no interest in the affairs of the Western Continent. This diplomatic act deserves emphatic commendation. It violates the honored and cherished traditions of the Republic in relation to foreign intervention. It concedes the right of European nations to a voice in a question purely American, and flies into the face of the Monroe doctrine, which has been for half a century more closely interwoven with the National sentiment than any other principle connected with our foreign relations. But two nations, besides the United States, have any substantial interest in the affairs of Cuba. These are England and Mexico. If these Governments alone had been consulted, and an understanding arrived at, General Grant's administration would not have exposed itself to the damaging criticism with which it is certain to be assailed in its indefensible maneuver.

TERRIBLE TORNADO.

Death and Destruction Along Its Entire Track.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 30.--A terrific tornado passed twelve miles east of Hickman last Sunday evening, sweeping down whole forests in its pathway. The force of the wind was so great that persons can now walk over trunks of trees, where before were dense woods. Twelve dwelling houses and barns were blown down and the inmates barely escaped with their lives. At Maryfield two persons were crushed to death under the ruins of a house. A colored man was killed outright at one house and at another a man named Schurz and a lady, Miss Zales, were killed, and her sister was badly bruised. The hotel at Bedford Lake was blown down and the guests barely escaping, some badly bruised by flying timbers. Death and destruction left their trace along the entire track of the tornado.

NEW YORK.

Wrestling Match--That Circular--Order of American Union.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.--The great wrestling match for $2,000 and the championship of America, between Prof. Bauer, of San Francisco, and Andre Christol, of New York, took place last night. Three thousand persons were present. Christol won, after a desperate contest, gaining the first, second and fifth falls, in one hour and fifty minutes. Betting was 100 to 30 on Bauer.

A Washington special says the report is correct that our Government has addressed a circular to the European powers on the subject of Cuban affairs, including a copy to Spain. Although its contents can not be definitely learned from official sources, it is believed that an expression of the views of foreign Governments has been asked concerning intervention in the affairs of Cuba.

As much has been published recently in connection with the secret society called The Order of American Union, the National Executive Committee of the order has decided on giving to the public a summary of the principles underlying the organization.

First. They accept the Bible as the basis of all moral, religious, governmental and educational undertakings.

Second. They yield unhesitating support to the Constitution of the United States and of the several States.

Third. They urge that the present system of general unsectarian free school organization shall be maintained inviolate.

Fourth. They claim that no part of the public funds shall ever be used for the support or maintenance of any sectarian school or institution whatever.

Fifth. They are opposed to interference in politics by any man or body of men acting in behalf or by direction of the members of any ecclesiastical body or power.

Third term or one term, Democracy or Republicanism, hard or soft money, crooked or straight whiskey, are entirely outside of their aims and plans, and receive no attention whatever.

Late Foreign News.

INDIGNANT AMERICANS.

BERLIN, Dec. 30.--The meeting of the Americans resident in Berlin for the purpose of protesting against the unjust strictures and reflections made upon America by the German press in commenting upon the crime of the man Thomas or Thomassen, author of the "Moral Horror," was held yesterday. A large number of Americans and many Germans were present. Letters received from several eminent German professors and leading politicians were read, defending America from the aspersions to which a portion of the press gave so wide a circulation.

Speeches were made by several gentlemen present, including Dr. Thompson, of New York, who was authorized to state that the German Emperor had said that in her opinion the crime of Thomas was not a National one, but was a crime that concerned himself alone. A number of German gentlemen present spoke and concurred in the views expressed by Her Majesty.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.--The attention of Politician Brady being directed to a house on Fifty-third street, he entered it this morning and found Mr. and Mrs. Meyers lying in bed, insensible from pistol wounds in the head of both. Their child lay near by. No cause is known, but it is believed that Meyers shot his wife and then himself.

"Guilty, with some doubts about his being the man that did it," is a Hoosier verdict.

FLASHES.

Charles O'Connor's physicians still feel encouraged.

Southwick's dry goods store at Northampton, Mass., burned yesterday. Loss, $55,000.

In White county, Tenn., a few days since, Tom and Wm. Little, brothers, and also of the year been so magnificent for the farmers. Looking over the whole State, there is one general expression of satisfaction from the north to the southern counties. The area of land under cultivation is much larger than in any previous year. A considerable area has been reclaimed, and a still larger one rendered fertile by irrigation. Unusually unpropitious and unfavorable change in the weather should take place before harvest time, we shall be able to pour into the markets of the world from twenty to twenty-five per cent. more of the cereals than in 1874; in other words, we shall have to sell from six hundred to one thousand hundred tons of wheat. Unless the European markets should be specially unfavorable, this will bring into the State an enormous amount of money, that can not fail to place our farmers fairly on their feet and stimulate every branch of business. Our wine and wheat crops will also add millions to the income of the State for the ensuing year. From present appearances no State in the Union has brighter prospects than California. It is high time that our farmers should have a season of good luck to recompense them for some of the losses and discouragements of the past."

STAMFORD, CONN., has a tramp house. On Monday last week, the opening night, fifteen stragglers presented themselves. They were shown into a warm room, and soon after summoned to a substantial supper. Then they went up stairs and made themselves comfortable around a hot stove. In the morning they were strengthened with bread and beef soup, and then given long-handled hammers with which to demolish two loads of stone. Before 10 o'clock every stone was reduced to fragments, and the tramps departed, most of them expressing themselves well satisfied.
